Government provides information on ME/CFS.□

In January 2014, Member of Parliament Hedy Fry put a series of questions about ME/CFS on the House of Commons Order Paper. On March 24, the government responded. You can read the official response here: This is a long document (37 pages). It contains 6 different responses - from the ministers responsible for Canada Revenue Agency, Employment and Social Development, Health, Statistics Canada, Justice and Treasury Board.

We have extracted their answers from the document.
